

Bio -- Regina Stout

Regina Stout is the Executive Director of the Kentucky Heart Foundation, Ashland, Ky. As Executive Director, Regina provides leadership for cardiovascular research at King's Daughters Medical Center, oversees continuing medical education and community education. In addition, she works on prevention programs including mobile cardiology, heart and vascular screenings, calcium scoring screenings and screenings for aortic aneurism. Prior to joining the Foundation, Regina was the Director of Community Services for King's Daughters Medical Center.

Regina is a Board member of the Foundation for a Healthy Kentucky and serves as chair of the Board's Program and Development Committee.

Regina received her Bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Ohio University, Athens, Ohio and a Masters in Strategic Leadership from Mountain State University, Beckley, West Virginia.